DOCTOR J. KORNITZER

Brief Biography of the Originator of the Electrolytic Treatment of Tuberculosis.

The "National Encyclopedia of American Biography," Vol. VII, page 51, contains the following sketch of the life of Doctor J. Kornitzer of this city, originator of the electrolytic treatment of tuberculosis:

Kornitzer, Joseph, surgeon, was born October 27, 1824, in Vagh-Ujhely, Hungary, where his father, Philip, an immigrant from Moravia, held the position of council clerk. After a six year's gymnasial course at Trencheny and Buda-Pesth, Hungary, and a two year's course of philosophy at the University of Vienna, Austria, he entered upon his medical studies in the "Josephinum," an institution for the education of army surgeons, in Vienna. At the outbreak of the Hungarian revolution in 1848 he shouldered the rifle to serve as a private in the Hungarian army. After its surrender at Vilagos Aug. 13, 1849, to the Russian auxiliaries sent to the rescue of Austria's throne he fled first home to see his old father, and then to different places in Hungary, where, unknown and unmolested, he taught school for several years, meanwhile applying himself hard to the study of anatomy and physiology, until a general amnesty granted to the rebels by the Emperor Francis Joseph made it possible for him to resume his medical studies at the University of Vienna. Here he was graduated in 1866, and in July of the same year, during the Austro-Prussian war, he was commissioned surgeon-in-chief to a hospital ward established at Kloster-Neuburg near Vienna for the reception of the wounded in battle. Soon, however, a cholera epidemic which broke out in Moravia, then occupied by the Prussian army, induced him to go there in order to try the first, as far as known, the then novel hypodermic treatment in this disease. A detailed description of his labors in this connection he recently contributed to "Merck's Bulletin" (October, 1892.)

In 1868 he came to this country and opened practice in New York City. Anxious to acquire a home of his own, he removed to Topeka, Kansas. During his stay there he went in February, 1880, to Cincinnati, Ohio, where he intended to publish a work on the pathology and abortive (i. e. antiseptic) treatment of zymotic diseases. A lecture on this subject which he delivered before the Academy of Medicine of that city was received with applause, and subsequently, when published as a pamphlet, favorably commented upon. Dr. Kornitzer is preparing a few articles on the same subject for the medical papers, which will lay before the profession some original therapeutic ideas which if widely adopted he believes are destined to divest the eruptive diseases (scarlatina variola, diphtheria, erysipelas, etc.) of the largest part of their horrors.

While engaged in the preparation of his work he was called away to the bedside of his wife, whose health had been gradually failing. For the purpose of restoring her health, he removed in February, 1882, to his present abode at Socorro, New Mexico, where the climate is of remarkable salubrity. Since 1880 he has made tuberculosis his special study, the result of which he has imparted to the public in two concise articles in "Merck's Bulletin" (June and August, 1892) which, he thinks, should prove a highly valuable contribution to the science of medicine. It is a treatise on the electrolytic treatment of tuberculosis.

Dr. Kornitzer has also published "Proclamation of the Redemption of the Soil as the Final Redemption of Society" (1872) and has at present in manuscript awaiting publication, "Wealth and Progress, a Rhapsody, Revealing the Divine Mission of Money." Dr. Kornitzer was the first to apply hypodermic treatment in Asiatic cholera (1866), the first to apply topically antiseptics in eruption diseases (1878), and the first to apply electrolysis in tuberculosis and other disorders of the respiratory organs (1880.)

The electric body wear mentioned herein will be known as Dr. Kornitzer's Pulmonary Ozone Generator and, on receipt of $10.00, will be sent to any address in the United States together with full directions and a price list of extras.

Saved Her Child's Life.

"In three weeks our chubby little boy was changed by pneumonia almost to a skeleton," writes Mrs. W. Watkins, of Pleasant City, O. "A terrible cough set in, that, in spite of a good doctor's treatment for several weeks, grew worse every day. We then used Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, and our darling was soon sound and well. We are sure this grand medicine saved his life." Millions know it's the only sure cure for coughs, colds and all lung diseases. All druggists guarantee satisfaction. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottles free.

A Scarce Article.

A Parisian restaurant keeper who had the honor of entertaining a Russian grand duke felt that the opportunity was one not to be neglected.

When the duke came to settle his bill, he found a charge of twenty francs apiece, or nearly four dollars, for hothouse peaches.

"What!" exclaimed the astonished nobleman. "Are hothouse peaches so scarce, then, even in midwinter?"

"No," replied the host, naively; "but grand dukes are."

Making It Easier to Bear.

"Charley, dear," said young Mrs. Torkin, "do the baby's cries annoy you?"

"Terribly."

"Well, I'll tell you what to do: Make believe baby is at a baseball and has just seen a home run."—Exchange.

CATARRH

Catarrh has become such a common disease that a person entirely free from this disgusting complaint is seldom met with. It is customary to speak of Catarrh as nothing more serious than a bad cold, a simple inflammation of the nose and throat. It is, in fact, a complicated and very dangerous disease; if not at first, it very soon becomes so.

The blood is quickly contaminated by the foul secretions, and the poison through the general circulation is carried to all parts of the system.

Salves, washes and sprays are unsatisfactory and disappointing, because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. S. S. S. does. It cleanses the blood of the poison and eliminates from the system all catarrhal secretions, and thus cures thoroughly and permanently the worst cases.

Mr. T. A. Williams, a leading dry-goods merchant of Spartanburg, S. C., writes: "For years I had a severe case of nasal Catarrh, with all the disagreeable effects which belong to that disease, and which make life painful and unendurable. I used various remedies, but without getting any better. I then began to take S. S. S. It had the desired effect, and I cured me after taking eighteen bottles. In my opinion S. S. S. is the only medicine now in use that will effect a permanent cure of Catarrh."

SSS is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known, and the greatest of all blood medicines and tonics.

If you have Catarrh don't wait until it becomes deep-seated and chronic, but begin at once the use of S. S. S., and send for our book on Blood and Skin Diseases and write our physicians about your case.

For Cruelty to Cattle.

The state humane board has finished its case against agents of the Church estate for allowing a large herd of cattle to suffer for want of water on the ranch in Logan county, south of Sterling.

Agent Kerr found 2,400 cattle inside a fence with little feed and no water at all. There were 105 dead bodies of cattle in the inclosure, including fourteen high-grade Hereford bulls.

Charges were brought against three men for knowingly and willfully depriving the animals of food and water, thereby compelling them to suffer great torture. Foreman J. M. Wells, W. W. Hope and Lloyd Young, employees, pleaded guilty. Wells was fined $30 and the others $15 each. The loss to the Church estate is about $3,000.—Denver Times.

Mr. Wheeler Got Rid of His Rheumatism.

"During the winter of 1898 I was so lame in my joints, in fact all over my body, that I could hardly hobble around, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. From the first application I began to get well, and was cured and have worked steadily all the year.—R. WHEELER, Northwood, N. Y. For sale by A. E. Howell, Socorro; W. M. Borrowdale, Magdalena.

Schley's Santiago
BY GEORGE EDWARD GRAHAM.
The intrepid Associated Press war correspondent, who was aboard the U. S. S. Brooklyn during the entire five months of the campaign. Illustrated with photographs taken by the Author during the fight.
The Most Sensational Book of the Day.
The true story of the famous cruise of the Flying Squadron under Commodore Winfield Scott Schley, including the blockade and destruction of the Spanish fleet, TOLD FOR THE FIRST TIME.
Contains an autograph endorsement and personal account of the battle by Rear-Admiral Schley.
"The facts of the story of the movements and operations of the Flying Squadron as the author tells them in this book are correct."
—W. S. SCHLEY.
An interesting narrative of facts. Explains the so-called "Intrepid Movement," the "Leap," the "Cooling Problem," and settles conclusively every adverse ruling of the Court of Inquiry.
PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, when Governor of New York, said:—"Mr. Graham's story is the best account I have heard or read of the naval fighting during the war. It is as correct as much courage to go about taking photographs as it did to work the guns."
THE NEW YORK HERALD says:—"Mr. Graham, in the telling of facts, leaves the reader free to make the deduction that several naval officers used a Court of Inquiry to re-establish their reputations, if they can be re-established."
No subject has ever been before the public that has interested everybody as the manner in which Admiral Schley has been treated, and the American people demand the full recognition of the hero of Santiago. This book tells everything just as it occurred and as the eyewitnesses saw it. Book is selling like wildfire. Librarians, commissionaires, clubs and books stores receive seven cent stamps for canvassing outfit. ACT QUICK. Now is the time to make money.
